

Services and Artwork Agreement

This is contract documents our agreement, as follows:

1. Who: _____ (client) agrees to hire Summer DeSalvo (artist) to paint a mural.
2. What: The size of the mural will be: 4 x 8 ft. The subject and details of the mural include: "Welcome to PASEO" each letter containing a different image.
3. When: The mural will be started on 7/22/24 and take approximately 2-4 days to complete.
4. Where: The mural will be painted at _____.
You represent that you have the authority to retain me for this purpose.
5. How Much: You agree to pay me a fee of $2600 total for the mural. 1/3 deposit of $867 will be due with this contract with the remainder of $1733 due at the completion of project.

- Change orders: If you would like to change the design of your mural after we sign this contract the cost of the mural will also be looked over. Which may lead to amending this contract.
- Cancellations: Because I may have given up other jobs to schedule you, your deposit will not be refunded if canceled two weeks or sooner to start date.
- Preparation: All walls and surfaces that will be painted on need to be ready for mural. Client is responsible for removal of nails, screws, filling holes, cleaning surface, etc. All furniture is asked to be moved out of the way as well so that everything is ready and clear for arrival. Artist is not responsible for anything damaged if not moved out of the way prior to painting.
- Records: I ask that I take pictures and Timelapse videos throughout the painting process for my records and social media use. I also ask that I sign the mural when complete.
- Some things I will guarantee you and some that I wont is that you are hiring me because you've looked over my portfolio or were referred by someone who has hired me before so you know I can paint many subjects. While I work on your mural I guarantee that you will get my best work and my full artistic attention. However, as much as I want your mural to be exactly what you envisioned it doesn't always happen this way. Due to this being art and not a photograph you will still owe me the balance due when finished.

By signing below, you represent that you have read this contract and agree to all of the terms.
